

☞ Infinitives: to do, to be doing, to be done, etc.

📖 People say that Mr President is in China. Mr President is said to be in China.

📖 People thought that the cat was sleeping under the coffee table. The tiger was thought to be sleeping under the coffee table.

1. People say that she doesn't tell the truth.
She _____
2. People think that we aren't busy today.
We _____
3. People believe that this house must be painted.
This house _____
4. People say that I am looking for a job.
I _____
5. People think that you can't answer the question.
You _____
6. People consider that the President doesn't want to be re-elected.
The President _____
7. People say that she has got a large family.
She _____
8. People know that the Scots wear kilts.
The Scots _____
9. People believe that Tom spends holidays abroad.
Tom _____
10. People said that I didn't warn him.
I _____
11. People thought that Agnes wasn't old enough to go to the disco.
Agnes _____
12. People believed that John was murdered last week.
John _____
13. People said that you couldn't hear the car crash.
You _____
14. People said that Eric didn't remember his wedding.
Eric _____
15. People thought that The Nelsons family didn't sell their house.
The Nelsons family _____
16. People considered that I had to enjoy his company.
I _____
17. People said that the weather was awful.
The weather _____
18. People thought that Mrs Hanks knew a lot about the art.
Mrs Hanks _____
19. People believed that several nurses were looking after a patient.
Several _____
20. People thought that a bank clerk was offered a better payment terms.
A bank clerk _____

☞ Infinitives: to have been, to have worked, to have been swimming, to have been asked, etc.

📖 People say that he scored two goals. He is said to have scored two goals

📖 People thought that she had worked in the bank. She was thought to have worked in the bank

1. Everybody knows that the rebellion was carefully planned.
The rebellion _____
2. People say that Tony was punished for missing classes.
Tony _____
3. People say that the teacher made me read my homework aloud.
I _____
4. People think that he was too short to play basketball.
He _____
5. People think that she was warned against the hurricane.
She _____
6. People believe that my neighbours studied the Bible.
My neighbours _____
7. People say that we had a burglar alarm installed in our firm.
We _____
8. People say that we were going to study archaeology.
We _____
9. People think that you required more time to solve the test.
You _____
10. People say that we were visiting the Royal Palace.
We _____
11. The witness said that the ship had sunk in less than thirty minutes.
The ship _____
12. People said that my uncle had never spoken to a member of parliament.
My uncle _____
13. People believed that he had committed the crime by himself.
He _____
14. People said that the hurricane had damaged almost the whole town.
The hurricane _____
15. People said that he had revealed the truth.
He _____
16. People believed that the judge hadn't taken a bribe.
The judge _____
17. People said that the door hadn't been locked.
The door _____
18. People considered that I hadn't known about her engagement.
I _____
19. People thought that George hadn't heard about our appointment.
George _____
20. People said that my parents had never shouted at me.
My parents _____