

Present Perfect

Simple Vs Continuous

1. How long you (wait) for me?
2. Where she (be)?
3. We (talk) for hours. We (not see) each other for a while.
4. Sue (twist) her ankle again.
5. Tina and Alex (break) up with each other for good.
6. We (learn) English for a couple of years.
7. She (drink) too much coffee recently.
8. you (hear) the news yet?
9. Your brother (just arrive).
10. Sheila (never travel) by plane before.
11. We (sit) here for half an hour. How long are we supposed to wait?
12. you (call) her yet?
13. I (do) my homework since the afternoon. I'm fed up.
14. Who (hide) behind the tree?
15. She (cry) all night.
16. Mum (already do) the shopping.
17. Our neighbours (already move) in.
18. What you (read) since the morning?
19. I (not talk) to my parents about the party yet.
20. My grandma (never eat) seafood.

Key

1. How long have you been waiting (wait) for me?
2. Where has she been (be)?
3. We have been talking (talk) for hours. We haven't seen (not see) each other for a while.
4. Sue has twisted (twist) her ankle again.
5. Tina and Alex have broken (break) up with each other for good.
6. We have been learning (learn) English for a couple of years.
7. She has been drinking (drink) too much coffee recently.
8. Have you heard (hear) the news yet?
9. Your brother has just arrived (just arrive).
10. Sheila has never travelled (never travel) by plane before.
11. We have been sitting (sit) here for half an hour. How long are we supposed to wait?
12. Have you called (call) her yet?
13. I have been doing (do) my homework since the afternoon. I'm fed up.
14. Who has been hiding (hide) behind the tree?
15. She has been crying (cry) all night.
16. Mum has already done (already do) the shopping.
17. Our neighbours have already moved (already move) in.
18. What have you been reading (read) since the morning?
19. I haven't talked (not talk) to my parents about the party yet.
20. My grandma has never eaten (never eat) seafood.